

Exhibit B – Threshold Scores for the Washington Access to Instruction and Measurement (WA-AIM) in Science

Prepared for the August 9, 2018 Special Board Meeting of the State Board of Education

Threshold Scores for the Washington Access to Instruction and Measurement (WA-AIM) in Science are as follows:

For grade five,

111 between level one and two

129 between level two and three

169 between level three and four

For grade eight,

110 between level one and two

127 between level two and three

163 between level three and four

For grade eleven,

111 between level one and two

128 between level two and three

164 between level three and four