“Strategic Teaching would like to confirm that the Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction (OSPI)’s April 25, 2008 version is faithful to the revised Expectations offered by Strategic Teaching in its report ‘Edited Expectations for the K-8 Standards’ dated April 14, 2008.”

Ms. Harding also reviewed what the Board had requested in its motion April 18 meeting to include more examples and an explicit statement of calculator use and that a good proofread be done.

Presentation

Dr. George Bright, Special Assistant to the Superintendent on Math Standards Revision Dr. Bright presented the April 25 version of the K-8 Mathematics Standards. OSPI proofread the April 18 version for formatting, inconsistency and accuracy. There is not any language about calculator use at this time.

The Board members had questions about edits that had been suggested by Timothy Christensen. Dr. Bright responded that he believed all of the suggested edits had been addressed. Cathy Seeley of the Dana Center, calling in on the phone, added to Dr. Bright’s comments that yes his suggestions had been addressed.

The Board members had questions about adding language for calculator use. Mr. Floyd and Ms. Harding responded that the issue of calculator use will be addressed by the Math Panel after all of the K-12 Mathematics standards have been presented.
