New Application for Credit-Based Graduation Requirements Waiver for a School

5. In light of the fact you are proposing an alternative to the credit-based graduation requirements, please describe how all students will meet the state learning standards in each required subject area to a level of depth and breadth consistent with the credit-based graduation requirements.

Reminder: Even with the waiver, you will need to translate back to credits when requested and calculate GPA when requested (if student transfers to another school or to applies to a higher education program). Schools must also use the state transcript format per RCW 28A.230.125 and WAC 392-415-070. (See FAQs on SBE Waivers webpage if you have questions about this or reach out to SBE staff.)

6. Please describe how you will ensure that all required offerings are made available to students. *

7. Please describe how the school district or school plans to achieve deeper learning for students through the waiver, including timelines for implementation. *

8. Please describe how the school district or school will determine whether deeper learning for students has occurred.*

9. Briefly explain how students, families, and citizens were involved in developing the plan.*

10. Please upload the resolution from the local school board demonstrating that your local board of directors support school district staff and school staff in working cooperatively to implement the plan. *
